

Proposal

Our Proposal is a Tic-Tac-Toe program. Compared to the current users, all users will find our version of the program more usable. It will be accessible both with and without an internet connection. We also personalized our game by changing the whole design of the game. The symbols, the gameboard, and the scoreboard. Another feature is that the players can personalize their chosen symbol and the gameboard differs from the level of each player.